Regarding — “Mental” Health, for America

Dear Congressman Murphy:

Once upon a time, “back” when I was in law school, I purchased a tee-shirt from an establishment called Ruehl. Sadly, that establishment is no longer with us, and with I, no longer, the t-shirt. Nevertheless, its’ image, remains ever so vivid in my memory. It was the color of dirt, and sturdily stitched into the woven fabric by “color” of cream, were the following words:

I have not yet decided whether to use my power for good or for evil.

At long last, I have come to a decision, which supplies the basis for which I am writing you this letter today. To provide a brief background, however, before we jump right in — my name is Marissa Kristina Varcho, I am 33 years old, of Eastern European descent, and a female born, bred, raised and educated right here, in the heart of “it” all. I am also, a human being who has been “cast” with the discriminatory label “serious mental illness” and as such, I am sending you these words, to correct “psychology’s” error.

I. IN THE BEGINNING — Mental Illness, Defined.

To the best of my understanding to-date, persons with this mystical power of being, known in the “field” of psychology as the seriously mentally ill “people”, used to be locked up in institutions here in “America”, were forced to endure lobotomies (A.K.A. surgical removal of part of the brain to “treat”, “mental” illness) by “medical” doctors, and sub’jected to various, “other”, ill-fortuned “fates”. My fate, has not been so harsh, but it has not been so “easy” either. When I read your proposal to “champion” mental illness in “America” last December, I was nauseated. In any case, I am writing you “to’day”, to help you straighten out the matter in your o.w.n. head, so you can then communicate the message to all of the “others”, in your dual-citizenship as a legislating psychologist and then lastly too also, to America’s people.

To “put” it briefly, “America” promised, when it unlocked the doors to its’ “old” psychiatric institutions and set my people “free” into this society — “America” promised to provide a “safety” net for my people within its’ communities. “America”, failed to up ‘hold, its’ “promise”.

Nonetheless, it has come to my understanding, that this conclusion “may” be due, to ig ‘norance. As such, I am “writing” on my own be’ half, as well as my whole, in “order” to educate you as to the true nature of psycho’logy’s, so-called “serious mental illness”.

II. ACCEPTANCE OF TRUTH — Acknowledging Discrimination.

What psycho ‘logy has decided to “term”, serious mental illness, is actually, but a mere human condition created by nature. Human beings like my ‘self, have a brain-chemistry structure that is different from the “norm”. That means, we have a set of human strengths and weaknesses that too, differ, from the “norm”. For some reason, psycho ‘logy does not seem to “like” human beings who differ “too” much, from his norm. And so “they”, made it up into a “bad” thing, disguising it ambiguously with such linguistics as “mental” (A.K.A. brain-chemistry is still physical, regardless of whether you can or cannot yet understand it), and “illness” (A.K.A. a human is not “ill” for being different, unless a certain socio ‘logy has “made” it as such), and “serious” (A.K.A. I haven’t quite solved this riddle yet, perhaps it’s that you seriously misunderstand but, you never know). So that is the great mystery there, all sorted out with an answer.

What has not yet been sorted out within this “American” society, is why human beings are still having trouble accepting “other” human beings in all their differences. I’m not sure what “religion” you go by, but I’m entirely sure that by nature’s law, all human beings, are different. Which then “begs” the question, as to “why” this particularly present, “American” socio ‘logy seems, to dis’ agree. I really have no “exact” idea, but I suspect, it be ‘cause of fear.

In other words, I believe fear came first, and then discrimination (A.K.A. “stigma”, socio ‘logical o’ppression, etc.) followed. I’m not sure “why” though, given the struggles and triumphs we have already seen, over and over again, time after time throughout our “common” American hi(s)tory—wherein human beings have been forced repeatedly, to live be ‘neath socio ‘logical oppression and thereby then too, again and again, ‘caused to rise above it. Another riddle for another day I suppose, except I shall not.

Apparently, we have not yet been capable to learn from his ‘story, as a socio ‘logy; so now, in its’ consequence, we are writing a new one for America. Notably, this is the “case”, be ‘cause we have not yet realized (A.K.A. brought in to the light, be ‘come enlightened, created into being, etc.) that human beings are “supposed” to be different. But that is Nature’s way — that is how we were all born and that “is” too, how we all, shall die. Every human being is different, perhaps to some “degree” more than an “other”, but like our fingerprints, no “two”, are a ‘like. “It” just is, what it is; and so now we’re going to rise above “it”, together, with our new, American wings.

III. PRACTICE OF TOLERANCE — Accepting Others’ Differences.

The fact of the “matter” is, some ‘thing is holding America’s people in ‘different. There’s no way to be a ‘certain, however I believe I have figured out what that “thing” is, and since you seem to prefer practices, based in “evidence” — I have captured the beast and sent you her head, alive and breathing, in the arms of America’s US postal service (A.K.A., by good ol’ fashioned, “mail”). As such, I heretofore cause it to be known to all American people, and would, request, that if you have any “better” evidence from the field of psychology — that you now bring it on forward, in to the light for all the rest of us, to “see”.

Otherwise merely noting that I have sent copies of my proof, to some of your fellow congressmates, and trust that those who were “chosen” will come to my aide, in facilitating the sharing of this critical, “intelligence”, up ‘date.

IV. EXERCISE IN CONSCIENCE — Noting Conflicted-Interests.

Moving forward, in knowing that every Ruehl, in Nature, has its o.w.n., “exception” — I would like to let you know where exactly it was that, in my be ‘lief, I found “out” that, I could be a ‘certain. The answer to the riddle in figuring out “America’s” excep(t)ion, can be found squarely on the back of every US dollar “bill” (A.K.A. “promisory” note, which you may not know ‘cause you’re not a lawyer) ever “printed” out of the US Treasury — right in the middle towards the top, “just” right exactly where the spine would be, if “money” were a human being.

I’m not exactly sure who created this particular, “design”, but they sure as hell did a great job. Anyways...

V. CLOSING — Mental Health for a Nation.

To “wrap” this up, just a couple weeks back, I took the “watch” my prior husband had purchased for me after I stood by his side through a double-lung transplant (but prior, to the “divorce”) — I took that time ‘piece to the jewelry shop, to “trade” it in, for something better. Notably, in addition to “cash”, I received a global reflection of Earth, made out of gems. Subsequently, after cross-examining my new globe for a little while, I found “out” on Wikipedia (A.K.A. information, without having to pay a “fee” i.e., for free), that the shape of Earth is actually elliptical (A.K.A. not, “spherical”).

Now, I understand that “men” do like to play with their balls, but please understand me...

When used in this particular, “position”, they really can screw up the results to our collaborative, human experiment. As such, I would kindly appreciate if you would fix this error on man’s part, with the time remaining in your hourglass-shaped office in the “Columbian” District of, Washington.

Sincerely,

Marissa K. Varcho
